

EETS BACKSTORY

Eets is a corpulent, droopy eyed, sunken cheeked, square jawed, under-bitten, jaggy toothed thief. He is full of braggadocio as he was born a coward, but quickly discovered his natural gift for thievery. He almost only steals food, almost. He is, actually, not a bad sort and is happy to share his bounty to anyone willing to hear how he got it.

Physically, he is big for a goblin (1.72 m, 107.5 kg). He is a fat goblin, but remains fairly nimble. Where he falls down, physically, is his stumpy little legs. He makes up for this by his dextrous, spindly fingers. He is extremely adept at everything involved in the art of larceny and especially legerdemain. He could pick the fur off of a sleeping cat, if the cat fell asleep within arms reach. Yeah, he's really good at it.

Mentally, he's bright for a goblin. He has average human intellect, but is week willed and lacks any sort of discipline as a sloppiness permeates his being. Including, but definitely not limited to his mental discipline. There's never a plan to the day, no fore thought. Heck, there's never even any after thought.

Psychologically, he's remarkably kind and giving. He's jovial and funny. He is food obsessed to such an extent that it occupies his dreams and he spends the day chasing last nights dream.
