BEB MIFSED BACKSTORY

Beb is complicated. He is almost entirely selfish and without empathy, but his cuts are about peace and getting along. He lives alone in a tidy loft, though he could afford a much bigger, higher rent place in his home city of Cairo. He is one of the most sought after deejays/master of ceremonies in the Arab world. He will only play on Wednesday and only for cash up front. He has never missed a show and has always drawn big crowds. He does not allow posts of his work on the internet and takes great pains to delete anything that may show up. He tells club owners that if there is a post of him at their club, he won't play there for a year. Beb does not use an alias. He does not play encores or covers. He has a set he plays of original compositions without breaks and then he goes home.

Physically, he's a good sized guy (1.83 m and 93 kg), gifted with quick hands and a strong constitution. He can be a bit clumsy and moves a little awkwardly.

Psychologically, he is very open to new ideas and ways of looking at the world. He has no concern for others happiness or suffering. He is paranoid about people stealing his song. He prefers to be alone and does not desire companionship. In short, he's a creative weirdo who's ideas are good for a society he doesn't want to be a part of or even care about. He's best left alone.
