LYLIL "LILL" BACKSTORY

Lill is a small statured winter Elf, but she's happier acting like a human. She has surgically altered her ears to fit in with her human friends. She greatly enjoys going to the Majestic after a particularly prosperous day of scavenging on the Nexus city junk piles. She has many friends and is generally well liked and well thought of. Many think she is settling for a life that would be more acceptable for a broodling, but she's happy enough for now.

For an Elf, she's small (1.52 m and 41kg). She moves with the usual elegance of an Elf, but actively tries to clunk around like a human.

Mentally, she is creative and sharp enough to carry out her plans. However, she's too free living to have a well conceived plan. Her schemes usually fall apart, but are successful enough to pay the days tab.

Psychologically, she's a free spirit, but a bit of a nervous nelly over things that don't really matter. Like people finding out she's an Elf.
